

Social and Personal.

SEVERAL very handsome entertainments have been given in honor of the retiring Governor's wife, who has filled her place so graciously as mistress of the house, and her departure is a source of great regret to the members of Richmond society, particularly Mrs. Andrew Jackson Gray, Jr., who was hostess of one of the handsomest afternoon receptions yesterday at the Women's Club. Mrs. Swanson's honor that has been given in Richmond for some time. About three hundred invitations were sent out. Groups of palms and crimson poinsettias decorated the handsome parlors of the club, and the mantels were banked in Richmond roses and maidenhair ferns. The chandeliers were wound with smilax, as was also the staircase, and golden baskets of red roses decorated the library, where Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, Mrs. C. E. Borden, Mrs. Mann E. Valentine and Mrs. Herbert Gray presided at the punch bowls.

Mrs. Gray, wearing a gown of Nile green satin, draped with spangled net and pearl ornaments, and carrying a "grandmother nosegay" of gardenias fringed with violets and silk lace, received in the front drawing-room with the guest of honor, Mrs. Swanson, who wore an exquisite gown of pale green satin, trimmed in cloth of gold and palest embroidery. Her ornaments were diamonds, and she also carried an old-fashioned bouquet of lilies of the valley, fringed with violets and lace.

The guests were received in the other parlor by Mrs. Cunningham Hall, Mrs. Henry Borchert, of Edgewood Park, New Jersey; Mrs. James A. Moncure, Mrs. William H. White, Mrs. William Fred Gray. Also assisting in doing the honors of the afternoon were Misses Annie Gray, Rosalie Valentine, Helen Gray, Mary Gray, Mary Valentine, Mrs. Carol Montague, Mrs. Philip Powers, Mrs. George Glimmer Minor, Jr., Mrs. Frank Woodward, Mrs. William Gray, Misses Grace Anderson, of Alexandria, and Lora Crump, of Alexandria.

The event of the social season after the "first Monday" is the Edgewood dinner-dance given in the Westmoreland Club. The club is limited to twenty-five members, and each season gives a very handsome entertainment. This year the date is set for Saturday evening, January 22, and its brilliancy for the past two winters is prophetic of future successes. Three married couples are always invited to chaperon the affair, and the society belles that have not already been "hidden" to this most delightful function might confess to an anxious tremor or two at least.

Miss Dowell to Wed.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bernard Dowell have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Jean Wortham, to David Oakes, of New York, on Wednesday, January 12, at 4:30 o'clock, in St. Martin's Church, Dowell, Va.

This announcement is most interesting on account of the prominence of the contracting parties. Miss Dowell is a granddaughter of Colonel Tom Dowell, of Bullhead, Hanover county, one of the most popular and hospitable of Virginia gentlemen of a generation ago, and a niece of Misses Sallie J. Dowell and Ella Dowell, of the University of Virginia. Through her mother she is connected with the Morris and other famous Hanover county families. She is a beautiful young girl of a typical Southern type. The father of Mr. Oakes is owner of large woolen mills at Bloomfield, N. J. About 1,000 invitations have been issued, including numerous friends and connections in Richmond. The ceremony will be performed by the rector of St. Martin's, assisted by the Rev. John Y. Downman, of this city.

money will be performed by the rector of St. Martin's, assisted by the Rev. John Y. Downman, of this city.

Dr. J. W. Burke, now of New York, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julian T. Burke, in Alexandria, will sail to-morrow for Vienna, where he will spend the next six months.

Dr. Burke is a graduate of the University of Virginia, and has frequently been the guest of friends in this city. At the Hunt Club.

The hunt and reception following at the clubhouse, given annually on New Year's Day by the members of the Deep Run Hunt Club, which was postponed on account of the weather, will take place to-morrow afternoon. The hunt will assemble at the Jefferson Hotel at 2 o'clock, returning to the clubhouse about 4 o'clock. Members from the different hunt clubs all over the State have been invited to attend the hunt, which is always the event of the season in sporting circles. The Deep Run bus for the reception will leave the Jefferson at half-past 3 o'clock.

Those receiving at the clubhouse will be: Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, Mrs. W. Ormond Young, Mrs. M. C. Jackson, of Petersburg; Mrs. A. S. Buford, Mrs. George Cole Scott, Mrs. J. Nelson Steele, Misses Maud Morgan, Warfield Crenshaw, Caroline Renolds, Gwendolyn Rutherford and Hattie Ross, of Petersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Fisk Wiley have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Mary Richmond, to James Henry Patterson, Jr., the ceremony to take place on Wednesday evening, January 19, at 6 o'clock, in Centenary Methodist Church.

Miss Hazel Hamilton celebrated her sixteenth birthday at her home, 3091 East Main Street, Wednesday evening from 8 until 11 o'clock. Those present were Misses Hazel Hamilton, Lottie Hamilton, Marie Throckmorton, Lottie Wingfield, Blanche McGee, Mary Eppes, Josephine Barthell, Louise Lettlich; Messrs. Willie Harwood, Everett Jackson, Thomas Jackson, Charlie Talley, Thomas Hancock, Harry Wall, Ed Weatherford and Clarence Lettlich. Games were played until a late hour, when every one adjourned to the dining-room, where refreshments were served. The room was beautifully decorated in pink and white flowers.

Others assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hamilton, Mrs. Throckmorton, and Miss Hawis. Miss Talbot Honored.

Miss Rosalie Langhorne entertained Tuesday evening in a most delightful way by giving a dance at her home in Portsmouth in honor of Miss Nellie Talbot, of Waynesboro, Va. The parlors were beautiful with decorations of cedar, holly and ferns, and mistletoe caught with bows of red ribbon swung from the chandeliers. Hulse's orchestra furnished the music. Miss Langhorne was assisted in receiving by Miss Talbot. Mrs. Edgar Nash presided over the punch bowl, and Mrs. Maurice Langhorne served punch. An elegant supper was served in the dining-room, which was decorated, and many lighted red candles were used. Dancing continued until 1 o'clock, and those who were present to enjoy this affair were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Langhorne, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Fairlie Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Nash Bilsely, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rudgins, W. S. Langhorne and Misses Nellie Talbot, Sophie Nash, Emma Nartin, Emma Trant, Alexis Ball, Annette Richardson, Winifred Watts, Lullie Hudgins, Mary Maupin, Elizabeth Batchelor, Fanny Etheridge, Mabel Hemingway and Miss Davis, of New Haven, Conn., and Messrs. W. S. Langhorne, Jr., Bilsely, Morgan and Fitz Hudgins, Johnson Neely, Frank Dewey, Tom and Heath Hume, Virgil and James Proctor, Bruce Carney, Whitcraft, I. T. Van Patten, Jr., Michael Glennan, Clarence Thompson, John Nash, Cecil Williams, Douglas Davis, Ensign Connors, U. S. N., and Paymaster Ellsworth Van Patten, U. S. N. Regular Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Junior Hollywood Memorial Association will be held this morning at 11 o'clock in Lee Camp Hall. Election of officers will take place, and all members are urged to be present.

Entertainment in Ashland.
Miss Lou Redd entertained most delightfully Tuesday at a bridge luncheon. Among those playing were Mesdames John A. Shepherd, James Carter, Blasingame, Clarence Wright, W. L. Foy, Frank Wright, A. P. Gilbert, Tate Cheney, Anna S. Carter, Bernard Guest, Hill Carter, Sr., Hill Carter, Jr., Samuel Carter, Misses Mamie Jones, Nannie Vaden, Alice Jones, Lillian Daily, Annie Dowell, also Mrs. William H. Hoofnagle, of Richmond; Miss Fold, of Chicago, and Miss Thornton, of Norfolk. The first prize, a beautiful mirror, was won by Miss Fold; the second prize, a growing plant, in a beautiful fern dish, by Mrs. John Addison.

Bowls—Jones.
One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Maile E. Jones to William H. Bowles, which was celebrated Monday evening, December 27. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Proctor, of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, in the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. E. H. Acree, in Howard's Grove, Va.

The house was beautifully decorated in palms, cut-flowers and candles. The bride, attired in a beautiful gown of cream satin and real lace, with veil and orange blossoms, entered the drawing-room with her matron of honor, Mrs. Arthur Dudley Brown, of Covington, Ky., and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Julian Bowles. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bowles left for an extended trip North.

Election of Officers.
At the regular meeting of the Branch B. A. M. Auxiliary to the Home for Incapacities, the following officers were elected: Miss Sara Allen, president; Mrs. John Murphy, vice-president; Mrs. H. C. Lynn, treasurer; Mrs. R. W. Payne, secretary; Mrs. L. Crutchfield, corresponding secretary.

Rea and Miss Bessie Mae Thurston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Thurston, were married last night in the Methodist Church. Rev. R. H. Wilson performed the ceremony.

The bride entered the church with her matron of honor, Mrs. Ernest Thurston, of Charlottesville. The groom was with his best man, Ernest Thurston, a brother of the bride. The first bridesmaid, Miss Mara Rea, entered with Frank Ballard; the second bridesmaid, Miss Myrtle Thurston, with Waverly Thurston; the third bridesmaid, Miss Jacquelin Burton, with Henry Ballard; the fourth bridesmaid, Miss Fannie Ballard, with Pete Wheeler.

The flower girls were Misses Dorothy Honey and Helen Garrison, and the ushers were Robert Clark and Rowe Brown. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the bride's parents, where they enjoyed an elegant supper.

Burress-Parish.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

St. Louis, Mo., January 6.—The wedding of Mrs. Harriet Gauhan Parish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Gauhan, of 559 Von Versen Avenue, and Albert Edward Burress, of Norfolk, Va., took place to-night at 8 o'clock. Dr. Williamson, of the First Baptist Church, performed the ceremony in the presence of the family and about fifty guests. The bride wore a princess gown of delicate shade of lavender crepe de chine, with large picture hat to match, and carried orchids and lilies of the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Burress left to-night for San Antonio, Tex., to spend a fortnight with Mr. Burress's sister, and will visit Washington en route to Norfolk, where they will make their home. Mr. Burress gave his bride a large touring car as a wedding present.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Goodie left on the northbound train for an extended trip to Washington, Baltimore and other Northern cities. After January 15 they will be at home at Remington.

SMITH ON TRIAL FOR MURDER.
Jury Secured from Charlottesville—Witnesses for Prosecution.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va., January 6.—Henry Smith, a negro, charged with the murder of Walter F. Schultz, when placed on trial for his life in the Corporation Court this morning, Judge L. C. Barley presiding, in a clear voice to the usual query of the clerk, replied "Not guilty." Throughout the day Smith was an interested spectator. The keynote of what may be expected was sounded by Commonwealth's Attorney Brent when in his opening statement to the jury he announced that there could be no midway verdict, adding that the prisoner was either guilty of murder in the first degree or not guilty. He added that he expected to prove the State's case against Smith, and if he did so he would ask the jury for a verdict of murder in the first degree.
